

JAPAN

Intergovernmental Agreement on Dry Ports

My delegation fully recognizes the importance of dry ports as an essential element in realizing the vision of a sustainable international integrated intermodal transport and logistics system.

On the other hand, my delegation is anxious about the expression, Article 6, Section 1, the second sentence. But my delegation is not going to oppose to adopt this Agreement. In order to show our attitude to the Agreement, my delegation refers to this matter. Thank you.